

Parents' handwork retreat

Friday January 15th (dinner) – Sunday January 17th (lunch)

With two experienced, knowledgeable, and supportive Waldorf teachers, Christine Newell and Elizabeth Seward.

Join us in the High Mojave Desert for our second annual parents'/ homeschooling parents' retreat at St. Andrew's Abbey, Valyermo CA. 1 hour north of Los Angeles in the High Mojave Desert: <http://www.valyermoretreats.com/>

Set a weekend aside to refresh, renew and re-inspire yourself for the remainder of the year. Learn or refine handwork skills with two highly experienced and supportive Waldorf handwork teachers.

Our weekend will include:

- Exploring doll-making in the Waldorf curriculum for 6th and 7th grades.
- Make a jointed baby doll
- And/ or smaller dolls and animals
- Discuss “What makes us human?” – a thread which winds its way throughout the Waldorf curriculum
- Delve into the ‘human and animal’ curriculum in 2nd, 4th, and 6th grades.

Costs include:

- lodging in a simple but comfortable room for one or two people, private bathroom. Two nights.
- all meals, Friday evening through Sunday lunch
- all instruction and supplies
- quiet and peace of the high desert

$370 for a single room; $295 per person for a shared room.

Saturday-only participation is possible, including lunch and dinner and all supplies for $85, with a limited number of partial scholarships. Saturday participants will make a similar, but smaller project.

Share this with friends using (or interested in) Waldorf elements in homeschooling.

Please return the registration form ASAP to guarantee a place.
